 Chairman to report further

11. WW1 SOLDIER MAURICE PATTEN

To consider Vincent Gray's desire to gift the above statue as a resin casting to the City, should the City see merit and value in having it.

Vincent Gray has added "Ideally, I would like to see it cast in bronze and if this is the case there would be a price to consider. A bronze cast and stone plinth would cost in the region of 30-35k. Maurice Patten is recorded in Chichester Cathedral on the memorial panels. He is also recorded in Eartham Village Hall where he and his family are from. There have been expressions of interest from the family and villagers. Maurice Patten the sculpture, of course represents all the fallen, particularly Royal Sussex Regiment"
